

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JOHN WILCOX JOINS BY LIGHT LEADERSHIP TEAM

(Arlington, VA, May 20, 2019) By Light Professional IT Services LLC (By Light) today announced that Mr. John Wilcox has joined the firm as Vice President of Strategic Initiatives.

Mr. Wilcox was most recently the Chief Information Officer/J6 for the US Special Operations Command. He brings to the company nine (9) years of experience in the Senior Executive Service, where he developed USSOCOM's information technology strategy and was responsible for operating and maintaining USSOCOM's global network providing support to nearly 80,000 special operations personnel. Prior to his assignment as USSOCOM J6, Mr. Wilcox served in the US Army for nearly 28 years, including commands in Hawaii and the Mid-East supporting both conventional and special operations forces. In his role at By Light, he will focus on developing new capabilities and solutions for the company's war-fighting customers.

“John is renowned as one of the very best signal leaders of his generation,” said Mike Hatcher, By Light's Chief Revenue Officer. “His long and distinguished career in both the conventional and Special Forces community will be a tremendous asset to the company as we conceive, build, and deploy new capabilities and services for the world's most demanding customer missions.”
